

Queensland Building and Construction Board
Interests Register
(including any conflicts of interests declared at Board meetings)

Updated: 20 December 2024

John Anderson
Member of a Queensland statutory body Community Reference Committee
Shareholder and executive director of a private company (consulting and training services)
Community member of a medical board
Trustee and beneficiary of a family trust
Chair of a New South Wales strata committee
Member of a community advisory body to a Queensland government department
Chair of a Queensland statutory body
Community member of Queensland statutory body

Colin Cassidy
Non-executive board member of a Queensland statutory body (health) and Chair of its Finance Committee and Audit and Risk Committee
Provides part-time consulting services to a private consulting company (including government engagement strategy)
Member of the management committee of an incorporated association and registered charity (animal welfare). Also volunteers corporate relations services to the association.
External member of Queensland government department's Audit and Risk Committee

Christopher Edwards
Non-executive board member of a Queensland statutory body (recreation)
Non-executive director of a private company which is a registered training organisation (aviation)
Relationship with QBCC licensee
Non-executive board member of Queensland government statutory body (community services)

Meg Frisby
Relationships with three QBCC licensees and two related licensed entities
Income received from private consulting services business (stakeholder relations and business development)
Relationship with a person who, in the course of their employment, may provide confidential professional services to QBCC licence holders
Board member with a not-for-profit incorporated association (community support services)
The not-for-profit association described above engaged a QBCC licence holder to undertake building work
Member of a not-for-profit incorporated association which provides professional services (legal)

Michelle James
Director and managing partner employee of a private company (legal services)
Trustee and beneficiary of a family trust
Relationship with a person who, in the course of their employment, may provide confidential professional services to QBCC licence holders
Principal and Director of a not-for-profit incorporated association (legal services)
Director of corporate trustee of a self-managed superannuation fund
Engaged a QBCC licensee to perform work at residence

Robyn Petrou
Director, private company (insurance)
Self-employed consultant (financial services)
Employed by private company (HR consulting, mentoring and coaching services)
Investment in a managed fund which invests in shares and property
Volunteers with a not-for-profit incorporated association (youth development)
Independent Chair of the Finance and Investment Committee of a professional industry association (medical)